

Character sales?

I think I'm about ready to quit Eve permanently and wonder whether there might be interest in buying characters/accounts?

I've seen some websites that seem to offer the service of arranging the sale of Eve characters/accounts but they seem a bit suspicious!

I have a perfect Jita trading character and a pretty good industrialist on one account and some other extremely good characters on other accounts.

Please let me know what interest there might be.

Thanks!

Hey there, yea fanfest was pretty terrible :(

I dont think you will find anyone buying here, i would go to some siite likr <https://evebq.com/characters> Or sell it on character bazaar and rmt the isk.

Btw, i dont assumr you are the same NotABot as the runescape guy hahaha, or are you?

Thanks, thats the sort of info I'm looking for; sites that people here could recommend.

And no, not the same Notabot at all :)

Hello,

Depend of the prices :)

I'm not sure what to ask. The site that excalibur suggested offered me $350 for all 3 accounts, which I thought was a BIT low considering how awesome the main account is (I mean cmon, owning all 4 marauders? Marauders skill FIVE! Almost perfect exploring and mission running/fitting skills? 26% of the way through Astrometric rangefinding 5 and then he'll be all 5's in Scanning)

I was thinking more like $1000.

Try to offer your accounts on funpay. Count how much skill injectors is necessary to create a char like yours from scratch. You will get a price of your char in ISKs, convert to money with discount like 1b ISK = $4.5 and you will get minimal price of your char. If you need translation to russian of your offer send me e-mail with text

Wow, thank you for that perspective!

I plugged it all into Evemon.

1.2b ISK just for the skill books.

467 large and 1 small skill injectors. Which would probably cost about 331b from sell orders.

Which, by your estimate on 1b ISK = $4.5 should be $1,494

I wonder if Evemon takes into account the diminishing returns on skill injectors...?

the minimum price would be extraction value, the maximum price would be injection value. Depending on how soon you want to sell your character(s) you should sit somewhere inbetween.

Since there arent alot of buyers i would sit on the lower end
